Ottawa County's Democratic Committee and Candidates

HOLD A SECRET CONFERENCE

In the Pariors of Sweet's Hotel to Deside Upon a Scheme to Absorb the Peoples' Party.

Just before noon yesterday several "foxy" tooking individuals, without baggage, registered at Sweet's hotel. They were headed by an innocent looking fat man, with blue eyes and a dimple on his chin. He didn't have any haggage either, but didn't seem to haggage sither, but didn't seem to mind it very much. After having the remainder of the party checked so it couldn't get away, the fat man called O. P. Barns and wife, Muskegon: A. L. We're from Ottawa county. We're democrats. In fact, I might say we're the democrats of the county. Of course we are'nt all of 'em, but we have 'em in our made pocket. See? Now, we want to hold a conference. There isn't anything secret or suspicious about it, but we want a room where every duffer in the city can't get onto us. See? Grand Hapile is a beg town and it's more centrally located tha nottawa county, so we came up here to do bosiness. Det you any we could have the larlor?"

The clerk said so, and the keen-eyed members of the county committee were ushered into the sanctity of parlor A. Everybody Knew.

"Now, hove, does every man know where he is at?" asked Duttley O. Wat-son, for it was he who had bluffed the "He does, sire," asserted the sergeant-at arms respectively. "Then let us proceed to find out what we are here for. In the first place we must patch up a truce with those cusses that persist in keeping in the middle of the road. The prospects for democracy in Ottawa county at present aren't much brighter than they are in Maine. If we can't effect a compromise, we're lost, and you duf-fers, that expect to feed at the government crib will be blamed lucky if you got a chance to work the free lunch

B. E. Chappel of Berlin, agreed with Dudley, and said the reputation of Ottawa county's democracy depended upon the generosity and magnamity of the men who hankered for county pap. He said something must be done to conclinate the peoples' party. He suggested that a special committee ought to be appointed to wait upon D. C. Wach's, who is supposed to carry the peoples' party element of Ottawa county around in his pantaloou's pocket. M. G. Manting and Martin Walsh had an idea that the democracy would hear something drop if it didn't would hear something drop if it didn't get a move on itself and either absorb the people's party or provide the wherewithal to grease the wheels of the Ottawa county machine.

Kamp Had "Figgered." Hen Kamp, of Zeeland had figured that democracy was about a 50 to 1 shot in Ottawa county anyway, and duin't see much use in throwing away good grease. None of the candidates felt like withof the nominees on the people's party tocket and the caucus finally adjourned in the understanding that another ret meeting was to be called soon

Those in attendance were D. O. Watson, chairman of the committee; John N. Wait, candidate for judge of pro-bate; Jans Verplanke, sheriff; Albert Vandenberg, register of deeds; Peter J. Dannof, state senator, and Jacob Barr for the legislature. The members of the committee present were Peter A. DeWitt, Spring Lake. Jacob Easterly, Crockery: B. E. Chappel, Berlin; Luman Jenison, Jenison; Ben Kamp, Zeeland; M. G. Macung, Holland, and Martin Walse, Spring Lake.

McBride's Republicanism.

"This talk that Mr. Richardson or any other democrat can carry the fifth district this year is not warranted by said the Hon. George W. Me-Bride of Grand Haven, who was a guest at the Morton yesterday. "Mr. Rich-ardson will be snowed under in his own county by 600 votes, and if Kent and Ionia stand in line he cannot possibly be slected. Mr. Richardson is a good man, but he is not good enough to carry the fifth district this year. I don't gnow just whom the republicans will nominate. I'm not working in the interest of any man; I'm for the party. Whoever the convention thinks is the best man, I'm going to support, whether he is my man or not. That's the kind of a republican I have always been, and that's the kind I'm going to be. I believe the interests of the republican party are of more importance than the personal ambition of any man or set of men, and I'm always willing to stand by the work of the convention, whether it went my way or not."

A New Process

The Lemon, the Orange, the Vanilla, contains more or less of a delicate flavoring sub stance, and the separation of this substance in a manner so as to retain all its freshness, gweetness and naturalness, requires the greatest experience and care.

DR. PRICE'S DELICIOUS FLAVOR-ING EXTRACTS are prepared by a new process that gives to them the natural flavoring qualities, and are so concentrated that it requires but a small quantity to impart to a eaks, pudding or cream, the delicate flavor of the fresh fruit. The leading chemists endorse their purity. The United States Government uses them.

Accident to a Teamster. SAGINAW, Sept. 14 .- While Mortimer Harrington, aged 52 years, teamster at Rust Bros.' mill, was driving his team to the watering trough yesterday morning, he walked to the end of the wagon tongue to loosen the harness, but one of the horses had a galled neck and the result of the additional pressure maddened the animal to such an extent that both ran away, the unfortunate man being thrown out under the wheels, internal as well as external injuries being sustained, probably of a fatal character.

four years ago I made up my mind to fight Sulhvan if I ever got a chance. He had said that he had retired from the ring so I did not challenge him. I merely accepted the challenge in which he alluded to me as a bombastic sprinter. "I attribute my victory mainly to superior science and skill. I had a good line on Sullivan ever since he boxed with me at San Francisco. I knew postively that he was not nearly as quick as I was, either with his hands or his feet. I realized when I first began to box that unless I could use both arms and limbs quicker than my opponent I had better abandon the business altogether. I succeeded in my efforts until I was satisfied with myself.

"I am glad I defeated Sullivan in the way I did. I have always known that I could hit hard enough to put any man out, but for some reason or other powers. I knew every move Sullivan would make, and I was fully posted on the openings he would give me to draw me within the range of his right-hand swing, but I declined to bite at the tempting bait.
